Experience

○ 2022 - Present

Feedo | Israel

FullStack Web Developer

Responsible for developing, and implementing user-friendly and responsive web applications. My primary focus is on creating engaging user experiences by using a combination of ReactJS, NextJS, NodeJS and other latest web technologies while also working closely with designers and other developers to ensure seamless integration of web applications.

○ 2022- 2023

NFSea.tools | London - UK

Frontend Web Developer

Responsible for developing clean, readable, reusable and maintainable solutions. Mostly work on Javascript technologies such as ReactJS and NextJS.

○ 2020 - 2022

Kpibar | Spain

Frontend Web Developer

○ Worked as a Front End Developer on a Spain based SaaS company, where I had translated XD designs to responsive and interactive user interface using ReactJS and GatsbyJS

○ 2020 - Present

Upwork

Freelancing

○ Worked on a range of freelance web projects from custom CMS, LMS, admin panels to ecommerce and serverless web applications so far. I build a web application from start to finish.
